Parents Right to Know

Parents in Title I-served buildings may request the professional qualifications of their child’s classroom teacher(s). This is referred to as their Highly Qualified Status.
HQT
(Highly Qualified Teacher)
Status of the Teacher

When a teacher is on extended sick leave or a permanent sub has been placed for the school year, LEAs (Local Education Association) must provide parents of children in Title I schools notification that their child has been assigned to or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.
Parent Notification for LEP Students

The Intensive English program that serves our LEP (Limited English Population) notifies parents when their child qualifies for services supplemented by Title III funds.
Limited English Proficient

- Parents fill out a PHLOTE (Primary Home Language Other Than English) Survey which determines whether a child should be tested.
- If a child scores within a certain range, he/she may qualify for Intensive English services.
- Parents are then asked to come in, meet with the teacher and sign a “Consent for Services” form.
Schoolwide Programs

- When a school has 40% poverty or more determined by free and/or reduced lunches

- Funds are to be used to improve educational programs offered to the entire school population

- Funds are used for programs, materials and/or supplies that improve the education of the students

- All of our buildings have Schoolwide programs
Parent Participation

- Buildings plan and implement educationally sound and Best Practice programs with meaningful input from the district Curriculum Department and parents of participating children.
- State Board of Education has adopted recommendations for parental involvement.
- Local boards of education adopt policies for their own districts.
Parent involvement in the schools is encouraged

Assistance is provided for volunteers by helping with state-mandated background checks

District and buildings should involve parents in development of district, school and any improvement plans

- District and Building plans are updated periodically.
- Plans may look different between buildings since each addresses the needs of individual building requirements.
