

Victoria Brown Memorial Scholarship Criteria

Victoria (or Miss Brown on the campus of BSHS) was full of beauty on the outside, but more importantly on the inside. She had a strength and faith in the Lord that fueled her passion to help students be successful in their high school education and in life. Mark and Sheryl Brown have chosen to keep Victoria's memory alive by giving a scholarship to a graduating student who desires to become a teacher and devote their life to making others successful in their educational experience.
