Beginning Saturday, January 8, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Grab & Go Craft: Stained Glass Mitten: Drop in anytime during the next two weeks to pick up supplies to make a stained glass mitten craft at home. Check our Facebook page (@waterfordpubliclibrary) for a step-by-step video tutorial on how to make your craft.

---

Tuesday, January 11, 10-10:30 am

Beat the Winter Blues (online): Two Right Feet is proud to present a new winter program all about embracing the blues and burrs of winter. Join us online to hunt for Juniper berries, dance with five silly polar bears, help Fred the Blue Jay pick out warm winter clothes for his snow day, relax with a "hot cocoa" breathing technique and more! Don't miss your chance to read, sing, and dance along to this upbeat, interactive program. Registration required for ages 2 and up by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website.

---

Wednesday, January 12, 4:15-5:00 pm

Chinese for Families (online): The Waterford Library is excited to partner with NeuLingo, to offer this free online series of Chinese language and culture classes for kids and their caregivers! Join us to go on a virtual tour of one of the most charming cities in China, experience the traditions and stories behind Chinese festivals, discuss popular foods, learn a few Chinese words and practice them with other kids through meaningful social interactions. Weekly registration is required by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website. For kids ages 5-12 years old. Participants are encouraged to attend all 5 weekly sessions in this series.

---

Wednesday, January 19, 10:30-11:00 am

Family Storytime (Online): Join us online using zoom for an all ages family storytime. We will read a few stories, sing songs, and share smiles together! Please register in advance for this Zoom meeting by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website.

---

Wednesday, January 19, 4:15-5:00 pm

Chinese for Families (online): The Waterford Library is excited to partner with NeuLingo, to offer this free online series of Chinese language and culture classes for kids and their caregivers! Join us to go on a virtual tour of one of the most charming cities in China, experience the traditions and stories behind Chinese festivals, discuss popular foods, learn a few Chinese words and practice them with other kids through meaningful social interactions. Weekly registration is required by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website. For kids ages 5-12 years old. Participants are encouraged to attend all 5 weekly sessions in this series.
Beginning Saturday, January 22, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Grab & Go Craft: Snowy Owl: Drop in anytime during the next two weeks to pick up supplies to make a snowy owl craft at home. Check our Facebook page (@waterfordpubliclibrary) for a step-by-step video tutorial on how to make your craft.

Monday, January 24, 4-4:45 pm (on line)
STEAM Ahead – Paper Rockets: Participants will explore the basic concepts of physics, aerodynamics, flight, and stability by making and launching simple paper rockets. We will create and blast off our rockets to see which design can fly the farthest. Registration required to attend this zoom program for those 6-12 year olds by clicking on the link below. Grab and go kits with materials will be provided and must be picked up prior to the program.

Wednesday, January 26, 4:15-5:00 pm
Chinese for Families (online): The Waterford Library is excited to partner with NeuLingo, to offer this free online series of Chinese language and culture classes for kids and their caregivers! Join us to go on a virtual tour of one of the most charming cities in China, experience the traditions and stories behind Chinese festivals, discuss popular foods, learn a few Chinese words and practice them with other kids through meaningful social interactions. Weekly registration is required by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website. For kids ages 5-12 years old. Participants are encouraged to attend all 5 weekly sessions in this series.

Saturday, January 22, 11-11:45 am
Teen Stress Relief (online): Are you feeling stressed by midterms? Join us online for some stress relieving tips and tricks! We will create our own stress balls, learn deep breathing techniques and simple stretching movements to leave you feeling relaxed and calm. Registration required for those 12 to 18 years old by visiting our Calendar of Events on our website. Grab and go kits with materials will be provided and must be picked up at the library prior to the program.