INFORMATION SHARING AND DISCUSSION ITEMS

A. Superintendent Report

Prior to the start of the meeting a presentation was shown to the Board titled “Happenings during 2013 Summer.”

B. Superintendent Goals

This item was moved to next month’s meeting.

C. Secondary Education Reorganization

The Board heard two (2) speakers regarding the reorganization of secondary education.
Mr. Traub discussed the chain of command within the reorganization. He also explained the CIAT (curriculum, instruction, assessment, and technology) administrator positions.

Mrs. Cappabianca had a question about who parents are supposed to contact with any concerns they may have. She also asked who teachers are supposed to contact with their concerns.

Mr. Rovero asked about the chain of command for the Life Skills program in grades 9-12.

Mr. Nargi asked who administers the teacher evaluations. He then asked if the concept of a vice-principal was eliminated, and what kind of administrator the Director of Secondary Education is. He asked if the grade nine (9) administrator would be fixed or would rotate.

Mr. Traub stated the Board of Education is in negotiations with the TPSAA regarding the questions Mr. Nargi is asking.

Board of Education concerns regarding line functions and responsibilities of administrative positions were discussed.

Mr. Cavagnero asked when the Board would be able to discuss teacher and administrator evaluations. He also requested information from the Superintendent regarding an upcoming State mandate for teacher evaluations.

Mr. Kissko asked about the negotiations going on with the TPSAA.

A board member asked if they could have a comparison of the old way of doing teacher evaluations and the new way of doing teacher evaluations.

Mrs. Hoehne asked for a break down of what is expected in a teacher evaluation.

Mr. Merola asked about the net gain of administrators.

The direction of education was discussed.

D. District Annual Performance Reports and Determinations 2011-2012

Mr. Traub read aloud the report.

E. CMT and CAPT Results

Mrs. Cappabianca asked for comparisons.
F. THS Football Field and Track Grant

Mr. Traub explained the Board did not apply for this grant; he gave the Board all the information he had regarding this grant. He stated he is trying to get a copy of the grant but has not been able to obtain one.

Costs, procedures and other improvements were discussed.

G. Athletic Handbook

Mr. Nargi had concerns about the language regarding alcoholic beverages, drugs and other illegal substances at athletic events. He also questioned the wording regarding sportsmanship. He asked about student arrests. Mr. Nargi asked if Torrington could only compete against other schools with the same academic requirements.

Mr. Merola stated this section of the handbook should reflect the Board of Education policy. He also asked about minimum academic requirements and the code of conduct for students.

Missing pages in the handbook were discussed.

Mr. Rovero asked if Torrington had to adhere to the CIAC minimum academic requirements for students or if they have their own academic requirements. He stated there is a conflict within the Board of Educations policy and the Athletic Handbook.

Mr. Cavagnero stated concerns regarding student’s behavior and punishment regarding athletics.

Mr. Traub reiterated to the Board and asked if the Board wants a policy regarding student conduct and extra-curricular or co-curricular activities. He then asked the Athletic Director to reference the Board of Education policy regarding alcohol, drugs and tobacco in the Athletic Handbook.

Mr. Brady made a formal request to have the policy committee craft a new policy regarding all extra-curricular and/or co-curricular activities and student behavior, discipline, and felony crimes committed by students.

Mrs. Cappabianca asked hypothetically, how a student would be suspended from playing football due to that student’s behavior if it is not football season.

H. THS and TMS Handbooks

A standardized handbook was discussed. Mrs. Hoehne asked when the handbooks would go out to the students and if the grammatical corrections would be made prior to the handbooks being given out.
Mr. Nargi had questions regarding cell phones and electronic devices on school grounds.

Mr. Traub announced to the Board that he was informed the grammatical errors in the handbooks would be corrected before they are given out.
